| MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT |

Happy New Year everyone, hoping you all had a fulfilled and joyous holiday season. As we start a New Year it reminds me of endless opportunities for change, growth and giving.

Our chapter is starting the year off by giving back to the families at the Ronald Macdonald House by providing a meal for them all. When we serve others it gives of sense of purpose and fills our heart with warmth.

I also wanted to take this opportunity to congratulate our 2nd annual award winners - Rhonda Adair (Rookie of the Year), Darlene Biggins (Representative of the Year) and Juanita King (Executive of the Year).

Please watch first our upcoming fundraiser in the next week, each of us that participates will be helping to raise money for our Ronald McDonald House family meal.

I will leave you with this my fellow EWI members:

I hope this new year brings you....

Courage to try again

Passion for doing the things you love

Ambition to aim higher

Resilience to overcome obstacles

Humility to learn from others

Kindness for yourself and others with gratitude. Rhonda Adair

MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

As a photographer, my focus is on capturing the timeless allure of women aged 40 and beyond, embracing the beauty that accompanies each passing year. I strongly believe in honoring and acknowledging the significance of this phase in life—a stage where we deserve recognition, appreciation, and care. I offer a beautiful experience, dedicating an entire day solely to you. This inclusive session includes professional hair and makeup services, complemented by your favorite music, snacks, and beverages, all tailored to your preferences. It's a day that revolves entirely around celebrating your uniqueness. In addition, I provide a beauty and style guide intended to assist in your preparations—a gentle nudge towards self-love and self-care. This guide serves as a companion, nurturing your journey towards this special day, encouraging a sense of pampering and attention to your inner radiance. Ultimately, my aim is to unveil a portrait that encapsulates the most beautiful essence of yourself—an image that resonates deeply, reflecting the elegance and charm that is uniquely yours.
